

Using Pastels to Create Abstract Flowers

With Peggy Nolan

Supplies:

Art paper
BAC pencil
Pastels in box – these are oil pastels – they can be broken into pieces to have enough for your students
Colored pencils in your box to supplement school supplies
Silk flower – you may want to add more flowers or photos (sample below)
Heart shape cut outs in box if you want to use to make hearts to glue onto artwork
Protective cover for workspace
Paint smock to protect clothes from pastels
Wet paper towels or wipes for hands
Hair spray or spray fixative (teachers apply)

Instructions:

Preview this video lesson first.

This might be great lessons to include some peer helpers if possible. Consider inviting your OT, too!

Title of book used in video: What's The Big Idea? By Joyce Raimondo

Please share photos if you can! We would love to see your students' creations!
